

Stone House

Retreat to the Sea with Ease and Style . . .
122 Sakonnet Point Road Little Compton, RI

Originally constructed in 1854 as a private residence and designed in the Italianate style, this seaside retreat has been historically restored with modern amenities. Each room in the Stone House was designed with distinctive characteristics, modern amenities and historical details. By inviting nature into the design process and welcoming guests with attractive service and thoughtful amenities, The Stone House is an unequalled destination.

Guest rooms in the Stone House vary in style and décor. All guest rooms feature a signature Stone House Gourmet Corner, custom designer quilts by quilt designer Denise Schmitt, iPod docking stations, and historical details. Several rooms feature fireplaces, heated bathroom floors and water views.

The Stone House offers each visitor an unmatched experience with its assortment of thirteen elegantly selected guest rooms. We have arranged special pricing for our weekend. Five rooms have king beds @ $200.00/night plus tax, two rooms are Superior Suites @ $225.00/ night plus tax, two rooms are 2 Bedroom Suites @ $275.00/night plus tax (perfect for couples traveling together), and four rooms are King Spa Rooms @ $300.00/ night plus tax.
